Summary:

Roger and Dorothy Abbott were murdered in their home on July 1, 2010. Dekalb County Fire Dept. responded to a fire at Peeler Rd where their bodies were subsequently discovered.

At this time, there is no evidence which suggests this crime was random. Instead, the evidence gathered suggests the victims may have known the suspect or suspects. A witness was located who saw a white male between the ages of 40-45, sandy red to brown hair, slim to medium build, of average height wearing a light colored T-shirt, walking in the front yard of the Abbott's home the morning of the murders.

At this time, we have identified a person of interest in this case. Because of the sensitive nature of this investigation, we cannot name this person of interest at this time. We believe that unknown person or persons have information about this case which could help us solve it.

We ask that this person or persons come forward and contact our department immediately by calling Sgt. Gary Cortellino: 678-382-6908 or gary.cortellino@dunwoodyga.gov.
